Defendant placed the basketball system into the stream of commerce by selling the product to Academy.

III. DISCOVERY LEVEL

3.1 Plaintiff requests that discovery be conducted under level 3 in accordance with Rule 190.4 of Texas Rules of Civil Procedures.

IV. JURISDICTION

4.1 This court has jurisdiction over Defendants because Defendants committed a tort in Texas. In addition the damages for which plaintiffs bring the suite exceeds the minimum jurisdictional limits of the court.

V. VENUE

5.1 This suite is properly brought in Fort Bend County, Texas, pursuant to Tex. Civ. PRAC. & REM. C §§ 15.002(a)(1) & 15.003 (a) because all or substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claim occurred in Fort Bend County, Texas.

VI. FACTS

6.1 Plaintiff bought the portable basketball system called "Spalding 54 inch Acrylic Portable Basketball System" on June 08th 2015 from Academy Sports and Outdoor located at 2320 Highway 6 HOUSTON, TX 77077 and self-assembled the hoop precisely following the steps illustrated in the manual that came with the system. On February 06th 2016, minor Plaintiff Rayyan Nawaid Isa was playing under the system on his driveway when, suddenly, the heavy metal rim fell on his face severely damaging his jaw, front teeth and gum. Plaintiff was lucky that the rim did not fall on his head that could have resulted in major head injuries including death.

VII. NEGLIGENCE AND DESIGN DEFECT

7.1 Defendants, Fruit of the Loom, Inc., Russell Brands, LLC, American Athletic, Inc. and Spalding were negligent in the manufacture and design and marketing of the basketball goal in question and such negligence was the proximate cause of Plaintiff's injuries and damages.

7.2 Defendant, ACADEMY, was negligent in the sale of the basketball system in question

7.3 Following page that shows a picture of page 25 of the installation manual that came with the basketball system, explains how to attach the heavy metal "Slam Jam Rim" to the backboard. Please notice that the "nut 54" is the only fastener that is used to hold the rim in position with the backboard. This nut is subject to tremendous pressure from the "spring 53" without any protection from self-loosening of the nut that can withstand the constant pressure from the spring. Naturally, the nut 54, giving into the pressure of the spring force loosened over time and came to a point where it completely fell off without warning. There is no warning in the manual to the effect that the rim has a potential of coming down due to the pressure from the spring and/or self-loosening of the nut (54).

7.4 Spring (53) produces vibratory load on the rim and on nut (54) while playing. Kids and ball generally touch the rim from all possible direction subjecting the rim to vibratory loading, transverse loading and dynamic axial loading. A very basic engineering stress analysis will reveal how a nut such as "nut (54)" shown above will perform under normal playing condition of the portable system in question and how it will be subject to all possible loading mentioned above. The most famous and widely available test called "Junker Test"¹ could have been used by the manufacturers of the system to determine the point at which a bolted joint loses its preload when subjected to shear loading caused by transverse vibration. Arrows shown in following pictures may provide an understanding of the load on fastener such as "nut (54)" under normal playing condition:

7.5 Many researchers and engineers have reported the reasons of this self-loosening of the nuts such as nut (54) in this case. A German engineer, Gerhard Junker, for example, as early as in 1969 reported on a theory he developed as to why fasteners self-loosen under vibratory loading. Junker found that transverse dynamic loads generate a far more severe condition for self-loosening than dynamic axial loads².

VIII. PRODUCT LIABILITY

8.1 Plaintiff, RAYYAN NAWAID ISA, was injured while using this product according to the instructions that came with it and in the manner intended and foreseen by the Defendants. The product in question was sold to be utilized as a portable basketball hoop at a residential home. The product is designed to be used in the driveway of a residential home for the purpose of playing basketball and Plaintiff, RAYYAN NAWAID ISA, was in fact playing basketball at the time this incident occurred on February 6th, 2016.

8.2 Defendants, FRUIT OF THE LOOM, INC., RUSSELL BRANDS, AMERICAN ATHLETIC, INC., and/or SPALDING, were negligent in the manufacturing and design of the product in the following respects:

8.2.1 The defendant manufacturers were negligent in failing to design the product so that it could be safely installed in a manner that would ensure that the "Slam Jam Rim" could only be attached so that it would not fall, break or otherwise come apart causing it to fall and strike the ultimate users of the product. Specifically the Defendants failed to utilize several mechanisms available to prevent self-loosening of the nuts subject to similar loads.

8.2.2 The product was placed on the market without warning the users that the nut could come off or break due to pressure from spring 53 or otherwise come apart causing the rim to fall and strike the ultimate users of the product.

8.3 These acts and omissions, taken by themselves or in combination, were a proximate cause of the Plaintiffs, NAWAID ISA, Individually and as next friend of RAYYAN NAWAID ISA'S injuries and damages.

8.4 Plaintiffs cannot more specifically allege the acts of negligent manufacture or design on the part of Defendant FRUIT OF THE LOOM, INC., RUSSELL BRANDS, AMERICAN ATHLETIC, INC., and/or SPALDING, because facts in that regard are within the knowledge of that Defendants. In the alternative, in the event Plaintiffs are unable to prove specific acts of negligent design or manufacture, plaintiff relies on the doctrine of res ipsa loquitur. In this connection, Plaintiffs will show that the character of the occurrence giving rise to this litigation is such that it would not have happened in the absence of negligence, and that the design and manufacturing of the basketball system was within the exclusive control of Defendants, FRUIT OF THE LOOM, INC., RUSSELL BRANDS, AMERICAN ATHLETIC, INC., and/or SPALDING, at the time the negligence probably occurred. Plaintiffs had no means of ascertaining the method or manner in which the product was designed and manufactured, and it came into plaintiff's possession in the same condition it was in when it left the control of Defendant, FRUIT OF THE LOOM, INC., RUSSELL BRANDS, AMERICAN ATHLETIC, INC., and/or SPALDING. Thus, Defendants, FRUIT OF THE LOOM, INC., RUSSELL BRANDS, AMERICAN ATHLETIC, INC., and/or SPALDING, were negligent in the design and/or in the manufacture of the basketball goal, which negligence were a proximate cause of the injuries and damages sustained by Plaintiffs.

8.5 The minor Plaintiff sustained serious personal injuries when the heavy "Slam Jam Rim" fell on his face severely and permanently damaging at least 4 of his front teeth and his jaw. Doctors and dentist are trying to save one or all of these teeth by placing sprints, extra protections, performing surgeries and doing root canals on these teeth. Plaintiffs have incurred and continue to incur reasonable and necessary doctors and medical expenses in thousands of dollars. There is a reasonable probability that the minor Plaintiff will incur future expenses for medical care and attention. The minor Plaintiff has also suffered severe physical and mental pain, suffering and anguish, and, in all reasonable probability, will continue to suffer for a long time into the future.

8.6 By reason of all of the above, Plaintiffs have suffered losses and damages in a sum within the jurisdictional limits of the Court and for which this lawsuit is brought. Pursuant to Tex. R. Civ. Proc. 47(c) Plaintiffs are seeking only monetary relief over $200 000.00 but not more than $1,000,000.00 including damages, of any kind, penalties, costs, expenses, pre-judgment interest and attorney's fees.

IX. REQUEST FOR DISCLOSURE

9.1 Under Texas Rule of Civil Procedure 194, plaintiffs request that defendants disclose, within 50 days of the service of this request, the information or material described in Rule 194.2.

X. PRAYER

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, Plaintiffs requests that Defendants be cited to appear and answer, and that on final trial, Plaintiffs have the following:

1. Judgment against defendants, jointly and severally, for the sum within the jurisdictional limits of the Court.
2. Pre-judgment interest as provided by law.
3. Award of exemplary damages against Defendants, in a sum determined by the trier of fact;
4. Post-judgment interest as provided by law;
5. Costs of suit; and
6. Such other and further relief to which Plaintiffs may be justly entitled.

Respectfully Submitted,
